

The San Bernardino Public Library to Host Mystery Author Jeri Westerson

The San Bernardino Public Library will host a presentation by Inland Empire award-winning author Jeri Westerson on Saturday, October 26, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. at the Feldheim Central Library at 555 W. 6th Street, San Bernardino.

Westerson writes the critically acclaimed Crispin Guest Medieval Noir mysteries. Her brooding protagonist is Crispin Guest, a disgraced knight turned detective on the mean streets of fourteenth century London; encountering thieves, kings, poets, and religious relics. Her books have garnered nominations for the Shamus, the Macavity, the Agatha, Romantic Times Reviewer's Choice, and the Bruce Alexander Historical Mystery Award.

Jeri is president of the southern California chapter of Mystery Writers of America and is vice president of the Los Angeles chapter of Sisters in Crime. She's also a member of the Private Eye Writers of America and the Historical Novel Society. She has been a guest lecturer at the Bowers Museum in Santa Ana and at UCLA.

Westerson's entertaining program will include a PowerPoint presentation and her cache of medieval weaponry. The sixth book in the Crispin Guest series is coming out this month. Books will be available for purchase and signing at a reception following the program. Contact Linda Yeh at 909.381.8238 or visit www.sbpl.org for more information. For more information on Westerson and Crispin Guest, visit www.JeriWesterson.com

“Crispin Guest is our medieval James Bond. Bold, determined and oh-so-sexy, he has a knack for being in the wrong place at the right time. In this latest outing, he plays a dangerous game of cat-and-mouse through the lethal streets of London, hunting down a terrifying secret to save a woman from unholy death. Lively action and heart-stopping suspense, twisting plot turns and a compelling cast of characters easily make this one of Jeri Westerson's best books yet!” – C.W. Gortner, author of The Tudor Conspiracy

“Inspired prose liberally laced with action.” –RT Book Reviews

# #