

San Bernardino Public Library Summer Reading Game Finale

The Summer Reading Program at the San Bernardino City Libraries will wrap up on Saturday, August 9th in the Bing Wong Auditorium at the Feldheym Central Library at 555 W. 6th Street. This is the ending event for all 4 of the City Libraries.

Abbit the Average will present his magic show in the auditorium beginning at 2:00 PM. Drawings for the Grand Prizes and other prizes will be done immediately following the magic show. Participants in the children, teen, and adult reading programs who received raffle tickets will be eligible for the grand prize in their category. You do not need to be present to win. Books need to be checked out by Saturday, August 2nd and returned before Saturday, August 8th.

Everyone who attends the magic show will receive a raffle ticket for chances to win other prizes, even if they did not participate in the Summer Reading Program.

Sponsors for this event and the summer reading program are The Friends of the San Bernardino Public Library, Auntie Anne's Pretzels, Baker's Drive-Thru, Hometown Buffet, Elephant Bar, Chick-fil-A, Fiesta Village, Del Taco, Legoland California, Rainforest Café, Wienerschnitzel, Regal Entertainment Group, and the Raymond Alf Museum of Paleontology.
