SYNOPSIS OF INCIDENT:

On August 7, 2014 at approximately 7:00 pm San Bernardino police narcotics officers were following up on information that they received on a large amount of marijuana in a storage container within the city of San Bernardino. When officers opened the door of this container they found it lined with boxed items. Behind these boxes deeper into the container, officers found approximately 10,000 lbs. of marijuana.

Officers have additional leads that they are following up on and believe that they will be able to identify a suspect.
