

San Bernardino Public Library Presents
“Martin Luther King” in celebration of Black History Month

The San Bernardino Public Library is presenting “The Voice of the King” in recognition of Black History Month on Thursday, February 26, 2014 at 2:00 PM.

Dr. Dennis Morgan Brown will re-enact the speeches of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., present the historical events of the time, and will be joined by a three piece band performing music of the era.

Dr. Brown has presented this program all across the country and has spoken before the State Assembly, the Senate at the State Capitol, the Mayor’s mansion in Los Angeles, and at the Martin Luther King Center for Social Change in Atlanta, Georgia.

This free program will be located in the Bing Wong Auditorium at the Feldheym Library at 555 West Sixth St., San Bernardino.
