

Cowboy Ken Frawley
At the San Bernardino Public Library

As part of the Summer Reading Game, the San Bernardino Public Library will host Cowboy Ken and his American Cowboy Show. This all-ages free program will take place on Tuesday, July 28, at 4:00 PM in the Bing Wong Auditorium at the Feldheim Central Library at 555 W. 6th Street in San Bernardino.

Cowboy Ken's program is a lively stage show of old cowboy songs, tall tales, true stories, historical facts, trick roping, and lots of audience participation and fun.

Learn this most recognizable and colorful character who rode onto the pages of American History in 1865. Experience the great cattle drives first hand and laugh at Old West stories and tall tales. Find out how the cowboys lived their life out on the Western Frontier and how this era and part of the western movement ended by 1890, after only about 25 years.

Participants in the library's summer reading game will get credit for coming to the program. This event is sponsored by the Friends of the San Bernardino Public Library. For more information on this event call Linda Yeh at 909-381-8238 or visit www.sbpl.org
