

Free Resources at the San Bernardino Public Library

Take advantage of the free resources that the San Bernardino Public Library offers its library cardholders. These resources are available at its website www.sbpl.org and then by selecting "E for Me."

Included among the databases that are not freely available on the Internet:

Overdrive's eBooks and audiobooks – eBooks can be read on a wide variety of devices and audiobooks listened to.

ReferenceUSA – Offers a business database of interest to job hunters, salespeople and marketers that includes contact information and customized searches by geography that can offer sales, number of employees and more detailed data.

Brainfuse - Tutoring is available for those in elementary, middle school, high school, introductory college and adult education in subjects including English, math, science, social science and other topics. SAT/ACT/GED test prep and writing lab is also available. It is available every day from 1-10 PM PST. It is also available in Español.

LearningExpressLibrary - Provides sample tests with questions to help preparation for the GED, SAT, ASVAB and various employment-related tests.

Zinio – Popular magazines offered in electronic format.

General Reference Center - Offers mostly full-text magazine articles.

Mango Language Learning – Some 71 languages are available to learn.

America's News – Full-text news articles including from the San Bernardino Sun from 9/2001 to current and Riverside Press Enterprise 9/1992 to current.

Information is available at www.sbpl.org and from the reference staff at Feldheym Central Library at 909-381-8221 and selecting Option 3.