SYNOPSIS OF INCIDENT:

On 08-28-15 at approx. 9:29 a.m. San Bernardino police dispatch received a call of an injury traffic collision in the 700 block E. Central Ave. Upon arrival officers found that the collision involved a single vehicle into an Edison pole.

The driver, identified as Alex Robles, was driving his 1991 Honda Accord eastbound on Central Ave when his vehicle veered north crossing the westbound lanes and collided into an Edison pole located on the north side of the street. Based on statements obtained at the scene, it appears as though Mr. Robles may have suffered a medical emergency while driving, causing him lose control of his vehicle. A live electrical wire was downed from the Edison pole as a result of the collision.

Mr. Robles was examined and pronounced dead at the scene by San Bernardino City Fire/Paramedics. Technicians from Southern California Edison were also called to the scene to make the area safe due to the live power line down.

San Bernardino Police traffic officers were called to the scene to investigate this collision.
