The San Bernardino City Library Foundation has received a $2,500 grant from Stater Bros. Charities on behalf of the San Bernardino Public Library (SBPL) to add new titles to its Overdrive eBook and Audiobook collection.

SBPL cardholders can access the Overdrive content including best-selling, popular authors by going to the library website at www.sbpl.org or directly to <http://sbpl.lib.overdrive.com/>.

“We are very grateful to Stater Bros. for its grant to benefit our patrons who enjoy our growing collection of eBook and Audiobooks,” said SBPL Director Ed Erjavek. “I’d encourage the public to try our eBooks and Audiobooks if they aren’t already enjoying them.”

The grant was received after an application was submitted by the Foundation.

"Stater Bros. believes in giving back to the communities we serve," stated Jack H. Brown, Executive Chairman of Stater Bros. Markets. "This donation to the San Bernardino City Library Foundation demonstrates Stater Bros.' commitment to supporting our 'Hometown'. As a native son of San Bernardino I spent many hours in the old Carnegie Library on 4th and 'D' St. dreaming my Dreams," Brown continued.

The San Bernardino City Library Foundation sponsors SBPL’s Overdrive collection, including paying for its annual subscription and providing a monthly stipend for new materials in eBook and Audiobook formats.

“The Foundation is very generous to make a significant expenditure to provide this resource to our patrons that we likely wouldn’t otherwise be able to afford,” said Erjavek. “It is a great example of volunteers stepping up for the benefit of the city’s residents.”
