

Actor Duffy Hudson Returns To the San Bernardino Public Library To Present His New One-Man Show On The Life and Work Of Harry Houdini

Houdini! His Life-His Magic!

Broadway and film actor Duffy Hudson will return to the Feldheym Central Library on Saturday, November 12, 2016 at 3:00 PM to present his new one-man show on the life and work of Harry Houdini.

Hudson takes the stage as illusionist and magic mastermind Harry Houdini, best known for his sensational escape acts. The audience will be mesmerized as Hudson brings to life Houdini's personal side, including ventures into film and aviation. What if Harry Houdini came back only no one could see him??

The entertaining play for all ages focuses on the character of Harry Houdini, who looks back on his incomparable career as an escape artist and magician. No one else ever completely defined the art of escape as Harry Houdini, who also possessed a magnetic stage personality. Houdini's most famous stunt was his Chinese Water Torture Cell and he delighted audiences around the nation as he miraculously defied death in his liquid coffin. Images of Houdini hanging upside down with handcuffs and shackles are still emblazoned on the American public consciousness.

Duffy Hudson is an actor, director, writer, teacher and filmmaker. He has performed in hundreds of plays and has directed over 300 theatrical pieces, including workshop productions with Brooke Shields, The Three Sisters with Jessica Lange, Don Johnson and Tatum O'Neal, and Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf with Marlo Thomas. Duffy tours the US with his one man shows and has appeared at the San Bernardino Public Library as Edgar Allan Poe, George Burns, Dr. Seuss, and in A Christmas Carol.

This free all-ages performance will take place in the Bing Wong Auditorium at the Feldheym Central Library at 555 W. 6th Street, San Bernardino at 3:00 PM on November 12.
