

Free Concert & Art Show with Little Mountain Big Band at the San Bernardino Public Library

The Feldheim Central Library will be hosting a free concert with Little Mountain Big Band on Saturday, January 21, 2017 at 3:00 PM in the Bing Wong Auditorium. There will also be an art show in the lobby during the concert.

Little Mountain Big Band is a 17-piece community group based in the city of San Bernardino and directed by Dr. Robert Winokur. Their main repertoire is drawn from the last 40 years of popular music: from the well-loved hits of the Beatles, Michael Jackson, Steely Dan and Chicago; to jazz favorites from Duke Ellington, Weather Report, and Herbie Hancock; and even some cuts from Charles Mingus and Frank Zappa, with the occasional original tune by band members. Little Mountain Big Band has performed all over the Inland Empire including San Bernardino Valley College, Mt San Jacinto College, and for the cities of San Bernardino, Redlands, Beaumont and Yucaipa.

This free concert is sponsored by the Friends of the San Bernardino Public Library and will take place in the Bing Wong Auditorium of the Feldheim Central Library at 555 West 6th Street in San Bernardino.
