San Bernardino Hosts the Little League Baseball and Softball
Western Regionals

On the Cover: San Bernardino Hosts the Little League Baseball and Softball Western Regionals

The Annual Little League Baseball and Softball Western Regional Tournaments will once again be held at the Little League Western Region Headquarters, 6707 Little League Drive in San Bernardino. The Softball Regionals will run from July 23 through July 29 and the Baseball Regionals will run from August 6-12.

The baseball tournament features all-star teams from northern and southern California, as well as Hawaii and Arizona with the winning team advancing to the Little League World Series to be held in Williamsport, PA. The softball tournament will feature teams from California, Arizona, Hawaii, Nevada, and Utah with the winning team advancing to the Little League Softball World Series in Greenville, North Carolina.

Games will be played at Al Houghton Stadium, which is named after the first Regional Director of the Western Region who was instrumental in the building of the headquarters.

Admission and Parking are FREE for all games. However, parking is limited, so you need to plan accordingly. The gates will open approximately 30 minutes before the first game of the day.

The weather is often very hot during these tournaments, so dress appropriately. Hats and sunscreen are recommended. Remember to stay hydrated. Water, various drinks, and food will be available for purchase at the stadium, as well as a variety of Regional and Little League souvenirs.

For game times and additional information, visit West Region - Little League. All games will also be broadcast on ESPN, ESPN2, and ESPN+.

So make your plans to catch a game. Or two. Or three.

City to Honor 1972 State Baseball Champions

On Wednesday, August 3, the Mayor and City Council recognized the 50th anniversary of the 1972 San Bernardino CAC All Stars incredible run of twelve straight victories en route to a 13-1 record and a second place finish at the Little League World Series Western Regionals.

The Civic Athletic Club All Stars, from the 6th Ward in the City's west side, are the last team from San Bernardino to be State champions and advance to the LLWS Western Regionals.

The CAC All Stars team members were Michael Adams, Paul Anderson, Harry (Teddy) Brown, Bobby Caldwell, Lynn Davis, Gary Dawson, Gerald Jacks, John Jordan, Kevin McDowell, Kevin Mosley, Zachary Russ, Ladell Taylor, Byron Wilhite, and William (Billy) Wilson. The team was guided by manager Al Jury, league president Felton Anderson, and the late coach Leonard Davis.

In 1972, the team won twelve consecutive games and won the state championship. They were defeated in the semifinals of the western regional playoffs by Pearl City, Hawaii. The team went on to win the consolation championship of the western region tournament to finish with a record of thirteen and one.

Only Two Concerts Left at the Roosevelt Bowl in July

The Sizzlin' Summer Nights Concert Series at the Historic Roosevelt Bowl has been a huge success. If you haven't been a part of the fun, you only have two more chances to attend.

On Thursday, July 21, Neon Nation and their 80's sound will perform. On Thursday, July 28, the series will wrap up with Suave the Band, an 8 piece band that mixes rock, R&B and salsa into a high energy show that is fun for all ages.

There is no charge to attend the shows. Gates open at 5:00 pm with the show starting at 7:00. Seating is first come, first served.

See you there!

San Bernardino Airport to Throw a Party to Celebrate New Passenger Service July 23

In celebration of the upcoming launch of passenger service from San Bernardino to San Francisco and Provo Utah on Breeze Airlines, the San Bernardino International Airport on July 23rd is holding a free all-ages "Ready for Takeoff" concert featuring the bands Shaed and Sur!

Starting at 7:30 pm, the event will also feature a beer garden, and delicious food from SoCal legends including Pink's hot dogs and Monty's Good Burger, and much more. Parking and admission is free, however attendees are encouraged to register at www.FlySBD.com.

Shaed is an indie-pop trio known for their hit single "Trampoline." The multi-platinum band has sold over 10 million records, along with more than 2 billion streams worldwide and 550 million YouTube streams.

Sur, led by Zack Arnett, fuses inventive alternative, electronic, pop and rock elements, visceral rhythms, a hip-hop spirit and a dash of desert-dusted mysticism.

- No cover entry all night long.
- All ages welcome.
- Each attendee will be screened by security.
- No weapons. No smoking.
- No outside food. No illicit drugs or alcohol.
- Folding chairs allowed.
- Unopened, commercially-packaged bottles of water are welcome.
- Your reservation is appreciated. Tickets are not required for entry.

THINGS TO DO

Norton Air Force Base Museum Highlights the 52-Year History of the Base

Looking to learn more about San Bernardino's history? Then stop by the Norton Air Force Base Museum.

The museum opened in 2013 honoring the base's history after its closure in 1994. The museum is home to San Bernardino military history dating back to the opening of the base in 1942, including displays on its name's sake, Capt. Leland Francis Norton, Chuck Yeager, the first man to break the sound barrier, Lt. Col. Kathy La Sauce who was the first female to pilot the giant C-141 cargo jet, and a POW memorial corner.

The NAFB Museum also provides services to help dispose of and recycle damaged US Flags. Anyone is welcome to drop off their flag in a convenient drop box just outside the museum's front doors or bring it inside and take a tour with the wonderful staff.

The museum is located at 1601 E. 3rd Street and is open Thursdays and Saturdays from 10am to 2pm. For more information, visit www.nafbmuseum.org.

Celebrate National Night Out on August 2

National Night Out is an annual event to bring together neighbors and police to celebrate San Bernardino and form partnerships to improve safety in the community.

On Tuesday, August 2nd, stop by the Police Department at 710 North D Street between 4:00 and 7:00 pm for an evening of fun, games, food, music, demonstrations, and neighbors.

Visit sbpdcommunityaffairs@sbcity.org for more information.

PARKS, RECREATION, & COMMUNITY SERVICES

Starlight Cinema Movies in the Park Will Feature Retro Films Every Thursday in August

Due to popular demand, Starlight Cinema will return with more movies in the park every Thursday evening in August. The Starlight Cinema series in June was a huge hit, drawing large crowds for games, activities, information booths, good food, and of course, fun family movies!

August showings will include "Roll Bounce" on August 4 at Perris Hill Park, "The Goonies" on August 11 at Seccombe Lake Park, "Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory" on August 18 at Lytle Creek Park, and "Back to the Future" on August 25 at Wildwood Park.

Activities will begin at 5:00 pm with the movie beginning at dusk. Just bring your lawn chair, a blanket, and maybe a few snacks. see you at the movies!

Register Now for the 2022 Senior Games

Registration for the 2022 Inland Empire Senior Games is now OPEN!

Formerly known as the San Bernardino Senior Games, this competition began in 1987 with a partnership between San Bernardino Community Hospital, San Bernardino Valley College, and the City of San Bernardino. Seniors, age 50 years or better, are invited to come and participate in various sports such as tennis, swimming, a 5k/10k walk or run, horseshoes, billiards, bowling, basketball, pickleball, and golf.

The Games provide an opportunity for active senior-age community members to meet, as well as connect face-to-face with nonprofit organizations, agencies, institutions, and businesses offering information on health services and products. Senior-age athletes come from all areas of Southern California.

The Inland Empire Senior Games is sponsored by the City of San Bernardino Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department and the Fontana Community Senior Center.

Please contact LaKeisha Jackson for additional information at (909) 384-5435 or by email at Jackson_La@Sbcity.org

LIBRARY

Stay Cool at a Library During the Hot Summer

The four San Bernardino libraries are some of the facilities for you to cool off at when the temperature rises. There are four libraries across the city. Each one offers newspapers, books, and magazines to read, computers to use, and free wi-fi.

In addition, there are fun and enriching programs, such as our summer reading program, which runs through August 6. This year's theme is "Read Beyond the Beaten Path," which encourages skill development and exploration, both in books and outdoors. It is not too late to participate. The program is open to all ages, from infants to seniors. Sign-up at sbpl.beanstack.org to share book reviews and earn prizes and entries toward the grand prize raffle for participants!

Feldheim Central, 555 W. Sixth St.
Rowe Branch, 108 E. Marshall Blvd.

Ingram Branch, 1505 W. Highland Ave.
Villasenor Branch, 525 N. Mt. Vernon Ave.

All four city libraries are open the same 40 hours a week:

Monday and Tuesday: Noon to 8 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday: 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Friday: Closed Saturday: 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Join the Library August 6 for its American Girl Tea

An "afternoon tea" for young people highlighting the San Bernardino Public Library's diverse collection of American Girl dolls will be held Saturday, August 6 at Dr. Mildred Dalton Henry Elementary School (1250 W. 14th Street).

This annual event, sponsored by the Library Foundation, offers a diverse variation of this old English tradition and attracts children and their parents from all over San Bernardino. Dressing up for the tea is encouraged. Refreshments and an educational program will be provided by the University of California's Master Gardner-Master Preserver program. The event is free, but requires an RSVP by calling (909) 381-8211 before July 29. Information including how to check out the American Girl Dolls at the Feldheim Library is available at the library's website at www.sbpl.org

HOMWORK HELP

In-Person and Online Homework Assistance Available for Students Returning to School

With students returning to school in August, the San Bernardino Library will be bringing back its popular in-person and online homework assistance programs.

For those looking for online assistance, Brainfuse Live Homework Help offers learners of all ages assistance available via the Library's website at www.sbpl.org. Library cardholders can receive homework assistance via chat with subject experts from 1 to 10 p.m. daily except major holidays.

Homework Help resumes Monday August 15th for Kindergarten through 8th grades both in person and online. The homework program will now be offered at all four San Bernardino Public Library locations. See the schedule below to see what branch and times are available. Registration is required with the help of a parent/legal guardian. Days and times are subject to change.
